HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

Navajo Indians voted for a tribal chieftan Monday and San Diegans went to the polls Tuesday to vote for mayor.

What's the connection?

Well, many Navajos are illiterate, through no fault of their own, and so the ballots carried pictures of the three candidates. The Indians voted for whoever looked like the best man.

In San Diego many voters undoubtedly stamped their X on the same basis—they picked the guy who made the best appearance on television. (This was written Tuesday before the ballots were counted, and it's no reflection on any candidate.)

* * *

A photogenic fella has quite an advantage in politics, now that the TV set occupies the place of honor in the American home. When Johnny Butler was elected mayor a few years ago, public relations men agreed that thousands of women had voted fo. him because he looked good on television.

On the national scene, it's becoming increasingly apparent that the Hollywood-type fella with a charming smile, who studied speech arts in school and wears a sincere necktie, is likely to defeat an Honest John with sound convictions but no sex appeal.

* * *

The television influence has had quite an effect on newspapers and magazines. Many publications have cut the wordage and increased the photo coverage.

That's not necessarily bad, of course. We all like to look at pictures and, after all, it does require some mental effort to spell out words on a printed page.

But if the trend is carried to its logical conclusion, the schools will abolish reading and writing and substitute oral expression and visual interpretation.

Which reminds me: Kites are in the air and Kite Day is coming up. Last March Sunset Magazine ran a picture of a fella flying a kite from the beach but muffed the date of Kite Day. Now comes "Home & Highway" with a nice layout of color photos showing kids making kites here, displaying them in a parade down "Main Street," and flying them from the beach.

Yeah, the pictures are pretty but the words ain't so hot.

About the kids, for instance: "On the big day they parade to the beach 15,000 strong."

Haw!

* * *

The trend is to publish a picture and to heck with the facts. "The public isn't interested in facts—they just want to be entertained."

O. K., so Kite Day will be held on the Fourth of July and 15,000,000 kids (let's not be pikers) will march down Main Street to the beach. There they will fire three-stage rocket kites into Outer Mongolia, or Outer Space, while Ignace Jan Liberachy smiles charmingly and Gina Lollopalooza serves spaghetti and meatballs.

TV fans will love it.

Plans Almost Completed For O. B. Kite Festival

With more than 500 kites already made by boys and girls at the Community Center, preparations were going ahead rapidly this week for the annual Ocean Beach Kite Festival Friday, March 18.

Mrs. Willie May Swift, recreation leader at the Center, estimated that from 900 to 1000 children will carry their kites down Newport Ave. in the parade.

This is scheduled to start at 2 p.m. Monte Hall will be in the lead car, with City officials and other guests riding in convertibles provided by San Diego Chevrolet dealers.

Councilman Clair Burgener, Leo Calland, director of parks and recreation; Pauline des Granges, recreation superintendent, and others will ride in the parade.

The Point Loma High School Band and Lomanettes will march in front of the kite-carrying children from O. B. Elementary School.

Turning north on Abbott St., fronting the ocean, the children will spread out on the beach and launch their kites in a massed flight. Many parents are expected to help the younger children..

The Ocean Beach Kiwanis Club has provided materials for the kites—white paper, sticks, paste and string. After being made at the Recreation Center, the kites are decorated at O. B. School.

Several thousand spectators are expected to line the parade route and watch the spectacle at the beach.

The annual Kite Festival is sponsored by Kiwanis and the San Diego Park and Recreation Department, in cooperation with O. B. School.

Silver Gate Pupils Complete Bicycle Safety Week Tests

More than 200 Silver Gate Elementary School pupils recently completed Bicycle Safety Week which was sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association and the San Diego Police Department.

The week was observed by fourth, fifth and sixth graders who attended an assembly and saw films and slides on correct riding techniques. Proper care of the bicycle was also stressed as a safety factor.

All upper grade students were given a booklet on bicycle safety to take home. A written examination covering information from slides, films and booklet was taken by the pupils.

A riding test included proper arm signals, riding a line at slow speed, stopping in a circle, driving among obstacles and ended with a safety check of the bicycle.

All riders successful in the written and riding tests were given a certificate and a decal for their bicycles.

Officer Si Bolger of the School Safey Patrol headed the San Diego Police Department workers. Women of the PTA Safety Committee who assisted in the riding tests included Mrs. E. G. Conklin, chairman; Mrs. Robert Ogram, Mrs. William C. Jungemann, Mrs. John P. Landis, Mrs. T. M. Dannback, Mrs George Gerrodette, Mrs. H. R. Beitscher and Mrs. Richard R. Herb.

Children who passed tests received certificates for safety and decals to put on their bicycles. Those with defective bicycles are to have further checks, Dr. Geddis said, because the safety program will be carried on for the rest of this school year.

EASTER SEAL SALE STARTS

With a goal of "a contribution—no matter how small—from every family," San Diego County's 1955 Easter Seal sale gets under way this week.

Launching of the drive wil lbe marked by the mailing of Easter Seals to 185,000 homes in the county. The seals will be accompanied by a letter outlining the needs for funds for crippled children and a self-addressed return envelope for mailing contributions.

Sponsor of the local drive is the San Diego Society for Crippled Children, one of 1600 societies for the handicapped conducting similar appeals throughout the nation.

The job of preparing the Easter Seals for mailing has been done by members of the San Diego County Federation of Junior Women's Clubs, which traditionally donate their services to the society for the mailing project.

Funds which are raised locally will be used for the Children's Hospital out-patient clinic and to furnish general hospital care for San Diego handicapped children. Other services provided by Easter Seal funds are a summer camping program for crippled children, weekly speech therapy and parental counselling of hospitalized children and outpatients.

The Little League meeting next Tuesday was called by Miss Grace Finley, principal of Cabrillo School, under sponsorship of the Optimist Club of Point Loma. The Optimist Club will sponsor a team in the league, and other clubs and business men are invited to sponsor the other teams.

Fishing Boats To Leave Early

Ready for business and loaded for bear, deep sea anglers literally will start burning the midnight oil this weekend when the fleets of the H. & M. Sportfishers and the Point Loma Association launch the early morning runs to the Coronado Islands in search of yellowtail, bonito, and other surface game fish.

New departure times call for the Islands boats to leave the municipal sportfishing pier at 2:30 and 3 a.m., boats combining surface and bottom fishing will leave at 6 a.m., and bottom boats exclusively will depart at 8.

With the Yellowtail Derby scheduled to begin April 2, the success of anglers this week will be watched with more than normal interest by future derby contenders.

Due to the press of last minute preparations, little or no surface fishing was done last week, but anglers continued to loop the big cod and groupers and the appearance of a big school of white sea bass off La Jolla added another flurry of excitement. J. H. Boyd, of Kerman, Calif., bagged a 38¼ pounder, and John E. Homer, of Buffalo, N. Y., sacked one weighing 37-12.

Among Point Loma-Ocean Beach anglers who fared especially well on rock cod, groupers, and other deep dwellers were: Major Harry Halladay, R. S. Watters, W. D. Ross, Bob Beyrer, Harold Hanson, M. D. Parker and Harry Ferris.

Dail Leads Mayor Race; Williams Gains Support

Councilman Charles C. Dail, who campaigned extensively in the Peninsula area, and Harry L. Foster, retired contractor, will fight it out for mayor of San Diego in the general election next month.

Final unofficial returns from Tuesday's primary election gave Dail 28,822 votes while Foster got 20,139. J. W. (Jerry) Rudrauff was third in the field of eight candidates with 16,695. These were complete figures from the 797 precincts in the city.

D. D. Williams Jr., of 3107 Zola St., polled a good vote in the race for City Council, Second District. Complete figures in the 96 precincts gave him 4200 votes to 5,067 for his opponent, Councilman Charles B. Wincote.

Williams and Wincote were the only candidates and both were nominated at the primary for the April 19 final.

In the Board of Education race, with three candidates competing for two offices, unofficial results were as follows:

Dr. Frank Lowe, 43,196; Robert C. Dent (incumbent), 38,931, and Mrs. Mary L. Fay (incumbent), 37,970.

Whether Dr. Lowe was elected at the primary will depend upon the official canvass of the votes.

San Diego voters turned thumbs down on pay raises for the mayor and councilmen but approved the water bonds by a big margin.

The City of San Diego had a fatality-free month, only third such record since 1928. In fact, none of the February traffic fatalities occurred in the incorporated cities of the county, all coming in rural areas, Rohr pointed out.

Dentists Observe Children's Health Week March 7-13

Dr. Roy DeLand, local dentist of 4907 Santa Monica Ave., announced that the San Diego County Dental Society is observed this week as the National Children's Health Week.

Dr. DeLand is the society's dental health chairman of Ocean Beach-Point Loma.

"The appalling statistics of tooth decay among children," Dr. DeLand said, "show all too clearly the importance of such a week. American children now have some 300,000,000 cavities, and the backlog is growing by about 40,000,000 a year. Every other two-year-old has at least one decayed tooth. The average 16-year-old has seven permanent teeth decayed, missing or filled.

"As dentists," said Dr. DeLand, "we know we can perform a far greater service to the community by educating parents on how to protect their children's teeth than we can as dentists after the damage is done. That is why we want to call their attention this week to the basic habits that can protect a child's mouth."

Y-Teens Aid YWCA Reach Year's Goal

The YWCA has been dedicated to the creation of a world-wide fellowship for women for one hundred years. Melanie Early of the Y-Teen Club at Dana Junior High School, is a good example of the 1200 girls throughout the county who are eager to help the YWCA reach it's goal of $35,000 locally, by trying to raise $7000 as their part of that goal. They are calling this their "Penny Parade".

At a rally recently each girl was given five little yellow bags which she will try to fill with 100 pennies each to be turned over to the Y Fund. The aim of the fund is to help the "Y" assure a second century of usefulness and help for women all ages all over the world.

On Monday, the Y-Teen Clubs sent representatives to a meeting at the San Diego YWCA to decide on a Rally or similar function to be held on March 19 at which time the girls will bring the bags filled with pennies to be turned over to Y Fund.

Here you will study color combinations, furniture arrangements, improvement of old furniture, drapes, etc. and all phases of decoration that make the difference between a house and a home. Field trips, exhibits and visual aids are used to supplement lectures, pamphlets, magazine articles and books that are read and discussed. Mrs. Conrad Goldman has been a very successful teacher in this field for several years. Her classes are now opening at several locations under direction of Northwest Adult High School. There are no fees or tuition. Schedule of classes: Tuesday 9:15-12:15 a.m., Ocean Beach Recreation.

Tuesday, 6:45-9:45 p.m., Pt. Loma High School bungalow.

BEAUTIFUL BRUNCH—beautifully frosted Concord grapes, piled high on a silver epergne, formed the centerpiece and conversion piece at a brunch Thursday given by Mrs. Verne Sutherland, 3747 Amaryllis Drive. The secret of the frosted grapes is dipping them in a sugar and water syrup which has been cooked until it forms a fine thread from spoon to pan.

Mrs. Sutherland's brunch had had a two-fold purpose: a meeting of the mothers of the eighth grade dance assembly and a boost for the Anna Russell concert in Russ Auditorium March 14. From the record teaser the hostess played for her guests, it would seem that the sponsor the San Diego Symphony, would have a sellout on its hands. Miss Russell, a musical satirist, has often been called the female Victor Borge.

SCINTILLATING SHOWER—Modern decor not only demands beauty, it calls for movement, too. So we have mobiles, tinkling and moving lights, and powered paraphernalia to make our homes attractive and to highlight our special parties. Mrs. Fred Carlyle Thompson, 3035 Lawrence, delighted her guests Friday evening when she combined both beauty and movement in a flower arrangement at the bridal shower she gave for Roberta Hill.

She formed a cascade of multi-colored sweetpeas in a giant bowl. In the water she placed dry ice which bubbled and effused cluods of heavenly mist. The effect was instantaneous and awe-inspiring.

Miss Hill, whose marriage to Andrew J. Woodington takes place Friday, March 11, will be the first bride to be married in the new Goodwin Memorial Chapel on the California Western University campus. Mr. Woodington is a graduate of Purdue University.

HEARD AND LIKED—Mrs. Helen Gilbert reports this conversation took place in a group discussion on Califrnia earthquakes. When the talk got around, one fellow remarked, "People in Long Beach stand in doorways during an earthquake."

"Oh," earnestly asked the visitor, "where would people from Chicago stand?"

ON TV SHOW

Den 5 members of Cub Pack 28 were taken recently to the TV studio, which presents the Roy Hogsed show. Mrs. Danfield, Den Mother, supervised the group. Presented on hte show were cubs Steve Tompkins, Raymond Danfield, Joe Turner, Joel Ewa nand Wayne Weatherby.

CLUB MEETS FRIDAY

The second meeting of the newly formed Staff and C. O. Wives Club, will be held tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the TV room of the Staff Club. Officers of the group are Mrs. Louis Haas, president; Dolores Norquist, vice-president; Virginia Fry, secretary and Mrs. Levis, treasurer. This is a social club for Staff and CO's and their families. The roster is open to new members.

PRIZE WINNING LETTERS

Youngsters in the Point Loma and Ocean Beach areas topped those from other districts with prize-winning letters and entries for contests conducted by Johnny Downs of Channel 10.

Bobby Elzenga of 4882½ Cape May won a remote control car for his entry of two lines; the phrase that brought the prize was this "I obey my mother." Ronnie Middlebrook Jr., won a three car assembly set for his safety cartoon, which warned parents to keep razor blades, knives, scissors and matches away from children. Rruce Mitchell of 3978 Fleet St., who is 6, won a wagon for his good deeds.

The Sands Motel, located on W. Pt. Loma Blvd., at Bacon St. is proving a popular place for tourists. Last week four couples, prominent business people in Canada were occupants. They find Ocean Beach an ideal place for relaxation. The Sands Motel and named for the type of land on which it is erected, has only been open about two weeks, and is furnished in modern, tasteful furnishings, helping to make a visitor's vacation something to remember.

Comdr. E. A. Field, USN (Ret), and Mrs. Field, returned here from Norfolk, Va., and are delighted to be back permanently after 3 years spent on the East Coast. They returned here to their own home at 3918 Alicia Drive.
